REGISTRATION AGREEMENT (You must sign below)

By signing below, you, the above-named registrant, agree to the following:

The American Board of General Practice (Board) will be utilizing an internet meeting/seminar service for the Internet Board Information Conference. Since the Board has no control over this service, the Board does NOT guarantee that this service will work properly or that you will be able to connect to this service or view or hear any of the internet conference. You are, and will be, solely responsible for the operation of the computer you use to view and/or hear the internet conference and for the sound and picture quality. The registration fee for the internet conference will NOT BE REFUNDED under any circumstance. The Board will be the sole determiner as to which internet conference you will be scheduled to attend. If, for any reason, you miss, or fail to attend, this conference, or if you are unable to hear or view this conference, then you will NOT BE REFUNDED any of the registration fee and, if you choose to attend another internet conference, then you will have to pay another registration fee.
